NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!! PETERSON'S MAGAZINE: or LA-DIES' NATIONAL. Edited by Ass S. STEPRENS and C. J. PETERSON Edited by ASS S. STEPRENS and C. J. PETERSON.

WITH the July number, which will be ready on the 6th of June, begins a new volume of this popular magazine. The July number will be of rare beauty, and among other steel engravings, will contain one of Lady Washington whee a bride.
This will be a beautiful, as well as patriotic embelishment; for Lady Washington, at the time of her matringe, was one of the most elegant women in Virginia; and our engraving is copied from Woolston's portrait of her, taken at that time. Every lady in the United States should possess a copy of ton's portrait of her, taken at that time. Every lady in the United States should possess a copy of this picture. Sketches from abroad by Mrs. Stephens. One of the editors, Mrs. Stephens, being now on a tour through Europe, she will farnish, in addition to her wovel of Julia Warren, aketches of scenes and incidents abroad. From such a pen, descriptions of old castles, historic sites, scenery, &c., will be of pricaless value. Mrs S. contemplates going as far east as Constantinople; in which case, she will give us descriptions of Life in the Harrem and the East. Spain, including Andthasis, Greunds, and other remantic localities not often visited, is a part of her plan of travel. On the whole, during the coming volume, the Ladies' National will present attractions that will defy rivalry from any quarter. FASHIONS AHEAD OF ALL OTHERS. In addition to its literary and political recomme

In addition to its literary and political recommendations, this magazine, has always been the beat guide for the fashions. The costumes are neleted and engraved for us a month shead of all rivals—To each plate is added a full letter-press description, besides information on all the latest styles, which we receive from London and Paris in avance. MOST READABLE OF THE MAGAZINES.

The Ledies' National is generally admitted to be the most readable of the magazines. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens is confessedly the best female writer in the United States. Her stories of Mary Derwent, Malina Grey, Palacos and Prisons, &c., surpass any thing published in the English magazines.—She is amissed by a corps of contributors, the best in the country, at the head of whom is the honored Mrs. Kirtland, Miss M. J. McIntosh, Ella Bodiman, Ellen Ashton, and a new writer of great power and popularity, engaged esclusively for us, the author of the 'Velley Farm:' who will contribute one or more stories for the next volume. more stories for the next volume.

MAGNIFICENT MEZZOTINTS ALL ORIGINAL. In the splender and originality of its mezzotints, this periodical surpasses all others.
